

The Scribbler

June 15, 2005

chargincharlie.com

Check it out. Charlie Dentzel, one of our 5th Grade students this year, has his own website. He will be traveling in Mexico this summer, doing some mission work passing out Spanish language Bibles, as well as his fulfilling his passion for surfing. If you would like to keep track of Charlie this summer, visit his website.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES FOR YOUR CHILD

While you are planning those fun outings and trips this summer, don't forget to READ!!! READ!!! READ!!!

If you can, sign up with the Public Library Summer Reading Program where they offer incentives for children to keep track of their reading over the summer.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

First Day of School/Elementary: Tuesday,
September 6th, 2005.

Orientation Day/Preschool: Tuesday,
September 6th, 2005.

First Day of classes for Preschool: Wednesday,
September 7th, 2005.

END-OF-YEAR DETAILS

Please fill out and turn in your child's paperwork for next year. Get those forms packets in NOW, please.

Step back in time at the Jerusalem Marketplace

Bible-times excitement is everywhere as you explore the bustling Marketplace, play Bible-times games, eat traditional treats, and make authentic projects and discover what it was like to live during Jesus' time. The adventure begins on July 25th! Program costs just $15! Monday-Friday, 9am-11:30am July 25-29. For information and sign-ups, contact Jessica O'Donel, El Montecito Presbyterian Children's Ministry Director, 969-5041 x 237.

FIFTH GRADE POETS

Four of our fifth grade students had their poetry entered in a regional competition. The judges scores came back and we're so proud of them! Here's how they scored:

Austin Abrams: Good

Erik Olsen: Good

Jack Davies: Excellent

Ryan Peters: Superior (highest honor!)

INNISBROOK FUNDRAISER

Out of town friends and family (or you!) can still support our school by ordering on-line at www.innisbrook.com.

Our school number is 109796.

This fund-raiser is valid through August 2005. Now is your opportunity to order their high-quality wrapping papers and accessories and have proceeds go to the school.

FIESTA CHILDREN'S PARADE

If you are interested in participating with other Elmo students/parents in the Fiesta Parade this summer, you can contact Carol and Elizabeth Vaccaro (683-4039) who are willing to organize an entry for Elmo families.
